

From: George Heller
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 2:06pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The proposed settlement is a bad idea. All it will allow for is big companies with deep pockets to tie up cases in court long enough that when the time comes for judgement the whole case seems irrelevant. At that point, they're unaffected because they've already accomplished what they've wanted to do: completely destroy all competition.